Centrepoints

The centerpoints of the Novy Undercover indicate where the cooking pots should be placed. They also contain a temperature sensor that measures the heat of the pot while cooking. Thanks to their subtle integration into the worktop, these centerpoints are both minimalist and stylish. They have a characterful, slightly weathered look, finished in the elegant shade "Aged Silver".

An additional benefit is that you can place the cookware directly on the worktop, allowing you to cook immediately without needing an extra accessory under the pot.
